Cape Cod Moms was founded in 2010 as a free resource; a place to network and collaborate for moms and parents on Cape Cod. Our blog is designed to help Cape Cod Moms connect with other moms, parents, and caregivers to empower the community with knowledge and support. Today our culture focuses on celebrity perfection, which fosters a desire in women and caregivers to do everything right. This is an impossible achievement for anyone and leaves women feeling overworked as they try to strive for a standard only achieved in the media. Cape Cod Moms is a supportive safe haven for moms to know they aren't alone in the obstacles they face every day; other moms and caregivers struggle to get it all done too!

Cape Cod Moms serves a great need in our community. Mothers, especially those who stay home with their toddlers, tend to be a little isolated. This blog helps create connections and provides useful advice to all parents looking for tips, events, new ideas. I wish the name was Cape Cod Moms & Dads, since there are a few stay-home dads, who, I believe, feel even more isolated! 😊
